Kathleen Geraghty, founder and executive director of Everyday Joy Inc. in Tyngsboro, has been awarded a full scholarship to a three-day seminar later this month led by the American Management Association entitled, "Developing Executive Leadership."

The scholarship is one of 75 awarded nationwide to directors and staff within non-profit organizations who demonstrate quality leadership, and who recognize the value of adding to their learning and expertise. Scholarships are provided by American Management Association in partnership with the Peter F. Drucker Leader to Leader Institute.
